

Samuel J. Banks

sbanks@beankinney.com
ph: 703.526.4704
fx: 703.525.2207

PRACTICE AREAS

Business & Finance
Business Organizations & Transactions
Commercial & Civil Litigation
Commercial Leasing
Construction
Employee Benefits
Employment
Government Contracting
Intellectual Property
Litigation & Dispute Resolution
Real Estate

INDUSTRIES

Government Contracting
Professional & Licensed Occupations
Small, Emerging & Growing Businesses

EDUCATION

George Mason University
School of Law, J.D., 2015
Brigham Young University

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia, 2018
Virginia, 2015

Sam Banks is an associate attorney with Bean, Kinney & Korman practicing in the areas of employment law, government contracts and commercial litigation. Sam also works with companies on trademark prosecution.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Sam worked as an accountant and a financial analyst for seven years. While he worked in finance and accounting, it became apparent to him that he loved helping people, which prompted his return to school to become a lawyer.

Sam's passion for helping his clients along with his prior experience in finance and as an accountant gives him the unique ability to understand a company's business and legal needs, allowing him to provide tailored advice to any business client.

Published Articles

Underground Vaults in Virginia
BKK Construction & Land Use Newsletter, December 2015

Thinking of Moving to Florida? Maybe a Little Further South is a Better Option
BKK Wills, Trusts and Estates Newsletter, August 2014

Professional & Community Affiliations

Arlington County Bar Association (Board Member, Young Lawyers Section)