Kandis Koustenis is a shareholder with Bean, Kinney & Korman focusing her practice on intellectual property strategies, protection, and enforcement.

She helps clients manage complex brand and content-related issues including global brand portfolio development and management, licensing and other intellectual property transactions, advertising claims review, privacy compliance, and federal court and TTAB litigation.

Kandis has more than 25 years' experience advising clients from a variety of industries as in-house and outside counsel in New York City and, since 2013, here in her home state of Virginia. Her in-house experience as intellectual property counsel for Toys "R" Us/Babies "R" Us and Kenneth Cole augments her ability to provide practical, business and budget driven advice.
